Memories.

It always seems things were better then.

The rain didn't cry

And the sun shone brighter,

Yesterday.

Just like yesterday

It seems the time has faded away,

But my memories will always stay.

Friends.

Where are all my friends?

It makes me wonder

Who they really are,

Today.

Just another way to say

Yesterday that was, is tomorrow.

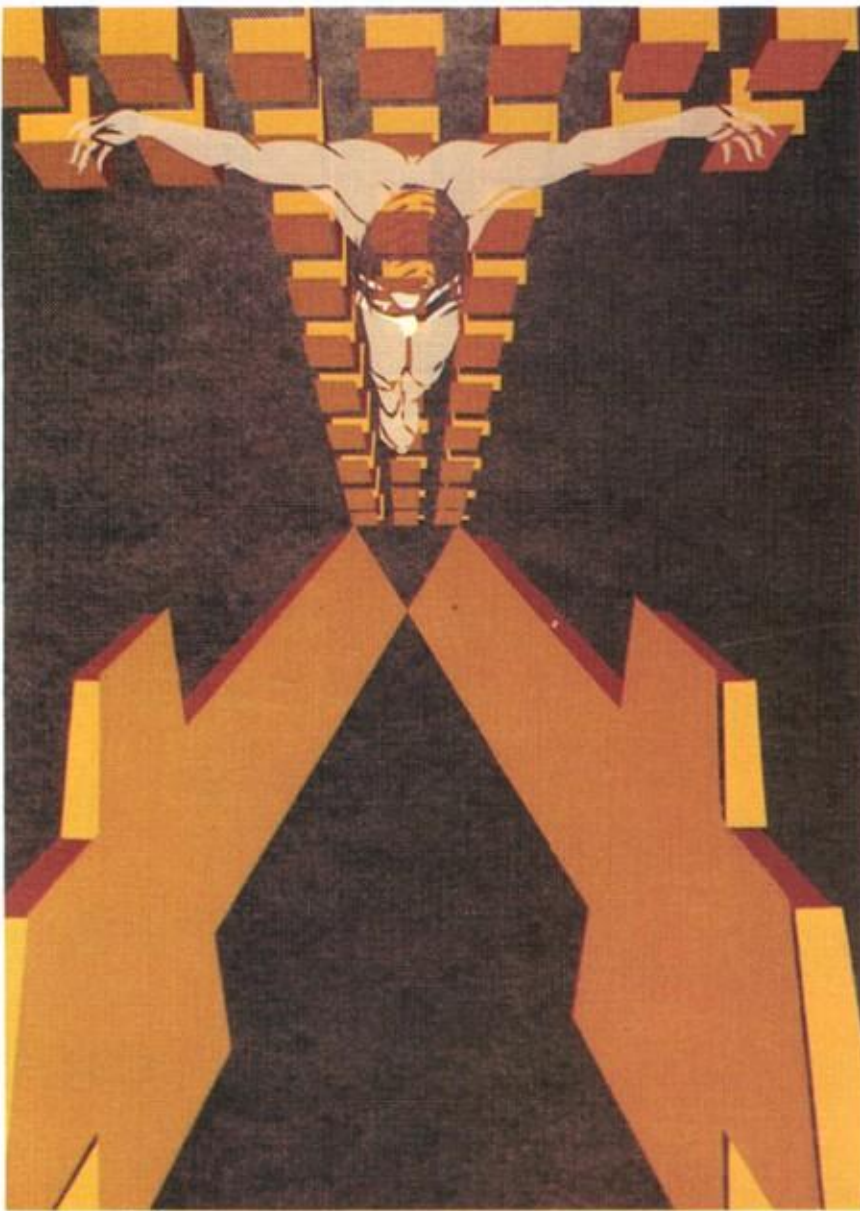

The future is always with us.

But memories will always remain.

OF LIVING

by Julie Popp

The ground was brown and fertile; yet barren.
Silence engulfed the area.
The sun shone brightly and warmed the earth.
Peace reigned.

Suddenly, without warning or explanation,
A slender shoot thrust its head above ground.
It wavered — would it be accepted or rejected?
The frail stem would not stand a beating.

As if in reward for the plant's courage,
The sun shone brightly and birds twittered.
The days grew long and warm.
The stem strengthened, and the roots spread under the ground to support it.

The sun's rays caressed the flower.
And in response, the bud opened;
Delicate petals unfurled, and the thought became a reality.

The beauty of the bloom was plain for all to see and appreciate.

But then came autumn, as it must,
And the cold winds blew.
One day, in the harsh gale, the stem gave up its struggle, and snapped.
The flower was dead. Its beauty would shine forth no more.

As if to compensate for the pain and anguish,
Nature dried the bloom to seed.
The wind did its part by carrying the seeds
on its tide,
Distributing them far and near.

With this action, the flower became forever immortal —
A living memory of the beauty which once was.

And this, my friend, is the story of our love.
It was born, grew, and matured.
Our days, like the flower's, were Filled with sunshine and happiness.

But also like the flower,
The stem of our love snapped.
The roots withered and died.
I was empty inside.

But then, like a ray of sunshine,
I became aware of the friendship we had shared.
We had reached out and touched each other.
Because of this, I will now be able to reach out and touch others.

This will remain with us forever —
A memory of living and loving.

Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Yesterday,

In the faces of yesterday
I can see many memories.

We can look back at the happy times,
and at the sad.

We can look back at the good times,
and at the bad.

We can look back at the trust,
and at the fears.

We can look back at the smiles,
and at the tears.

From all these things we have learned what we know.
From all these things we should know where to go.

Today,

In the faces of today

I can see curiosity and wonder.

Look at ourselves,

and what we can be.

Look at what we are,

and what we can be.

Look at our minds,

and at our thoughts.

Decide what we believe,

of what we were taught.

We must make our decision, and make it fast.

To go on in the future or dwell in the past.

Tomorrow,

In the faces of tomorrow

I see more curiosity and wonder.

Look at what we can give our parents,

peace in their hearts for the rest of their life.

Look at what we can give our friends,

a shoulder to lean on in times of strife.

Look at what we can give the children, warmth and kindness without fuss.

Look at what we can give ourselves,

a chance to give a part of us.

Take a look at the things we can give.

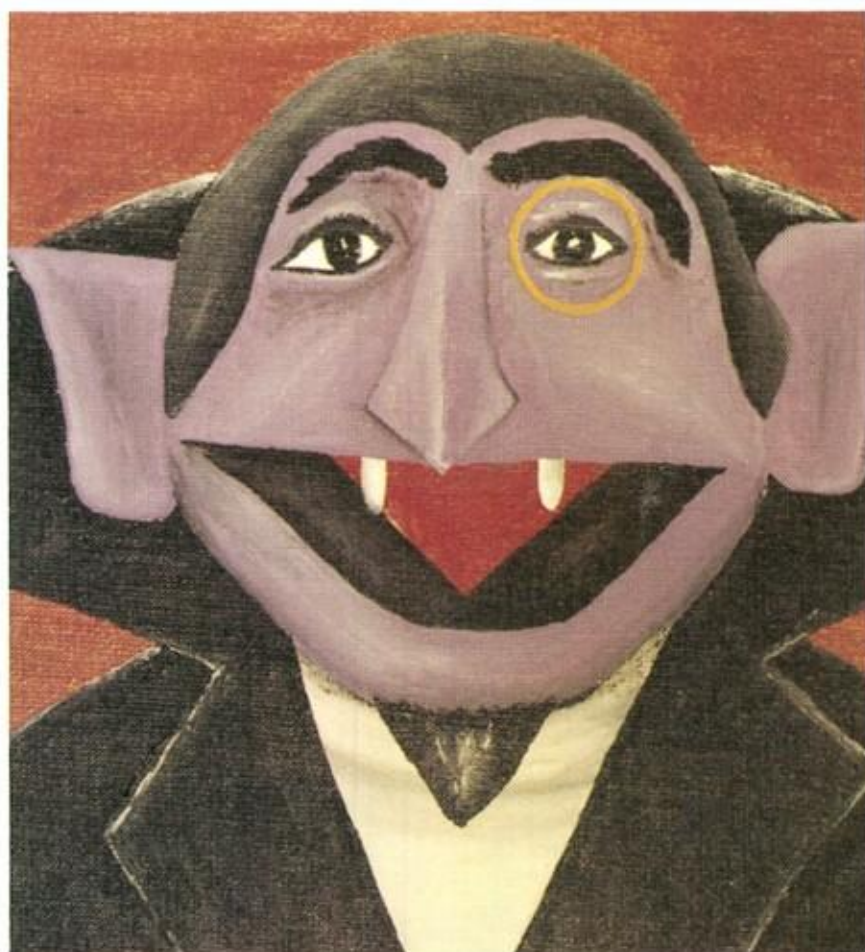

Only then can we know how to live.

Tomorrow's Early Light

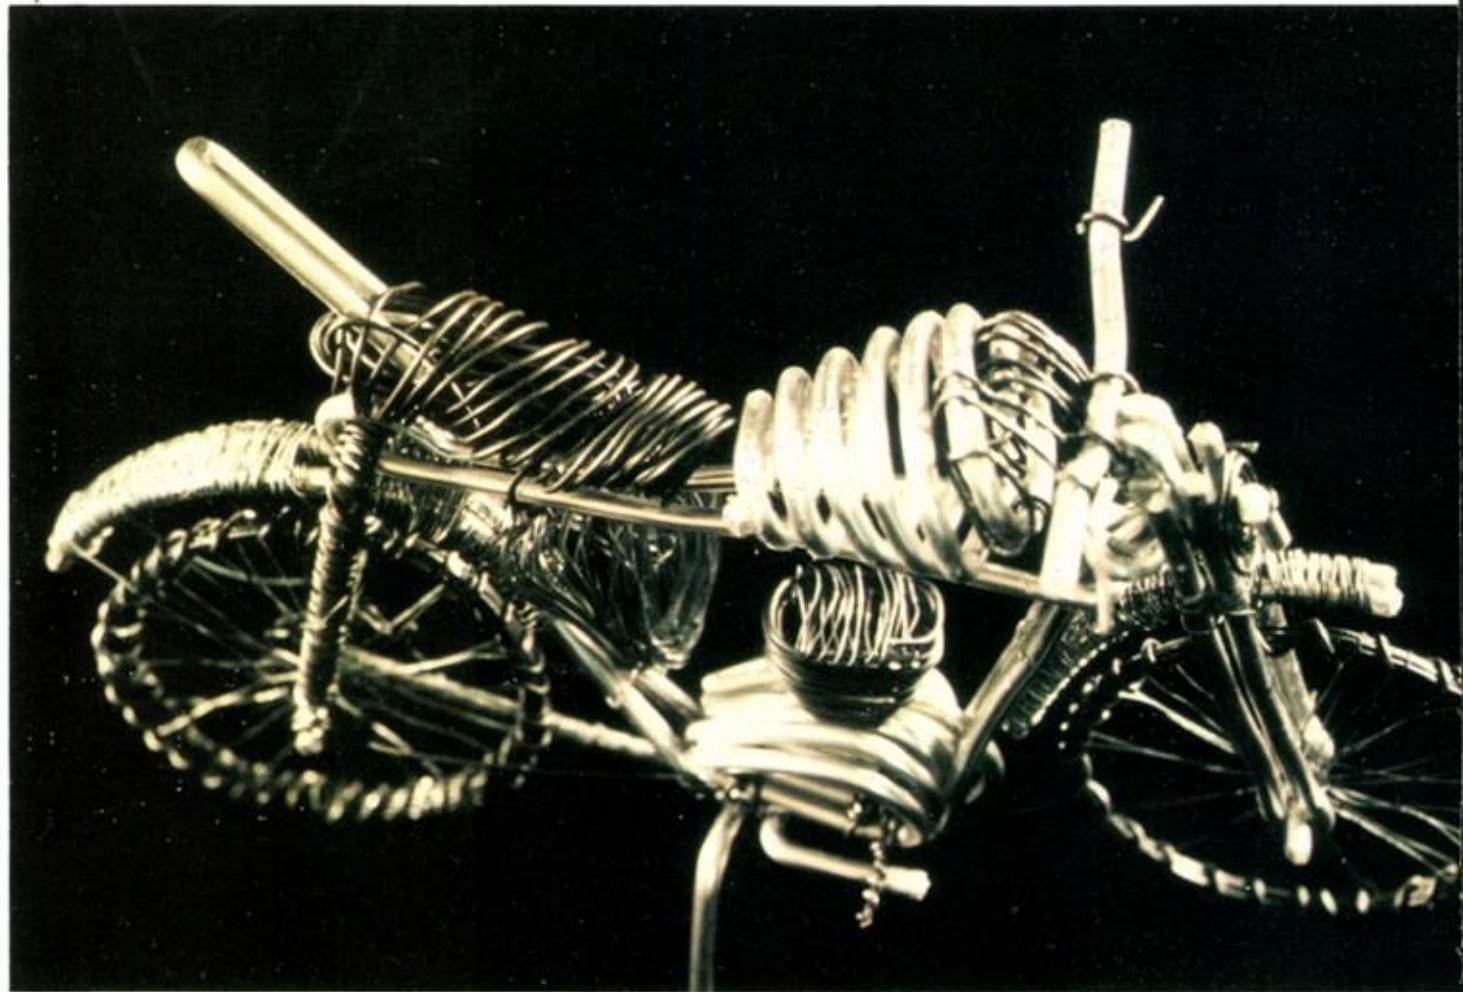

The early dawn was rising
Promising to bring its light of hope.

The fields were all frosted
And laced with golden rope.

In morning came the beauty
Even better than at dawn.
The morning brought us rainbows
That spread across our lawn.

And as the day grew older
And the beauty had all gone,
I went to sleep remembering
Tomorrow's early dawn.

Winter

The last season of love,
came this morning
making me late for life.

Icicles,
hanging from my memories of you;
grow heavy with the passing of the night.

The sun,
no longer burns
but instead blinds.

My emotions, lacking their usual green leaves,
lay naked and bare.

Bent by the wind,
until I think I must break,
I wrap my heart
in many layers of appearance;
hoping this will keep it warm.

When it snows,
it does so within as well as without.

Whatever reason I had,
now slumbers in some deep cave.

Blinded by the blizzard that rages within me,
I mistakenly burn my friends in the fireplace,
thinking all the time:
this will keep me from freezing
any more than I already have.

Shuffling along without a winter
coat.

Weary, afraid of falling asleep.

Afraid it will last a lifetime.

'75 Homecoming Week

Once again Case's students combined hard work and lots of good fun to make our homecoming worth it. Our team put up a good fight but lost to St. Francis de Sales of Chicago, 19-3. But as you can see, our hard work still paid off. Even our senior float, which was destroyed the day before the game, was rebuilt and pulled through to win first place. Events like the greasepole and leapfrog — what a mess! But from races to dress-up days, to the pep assembly where King Joe Torres and Queen Sharon Chadek were presented, it was unforgettable!

Homecoming — '75

A Dream Goes On Forever

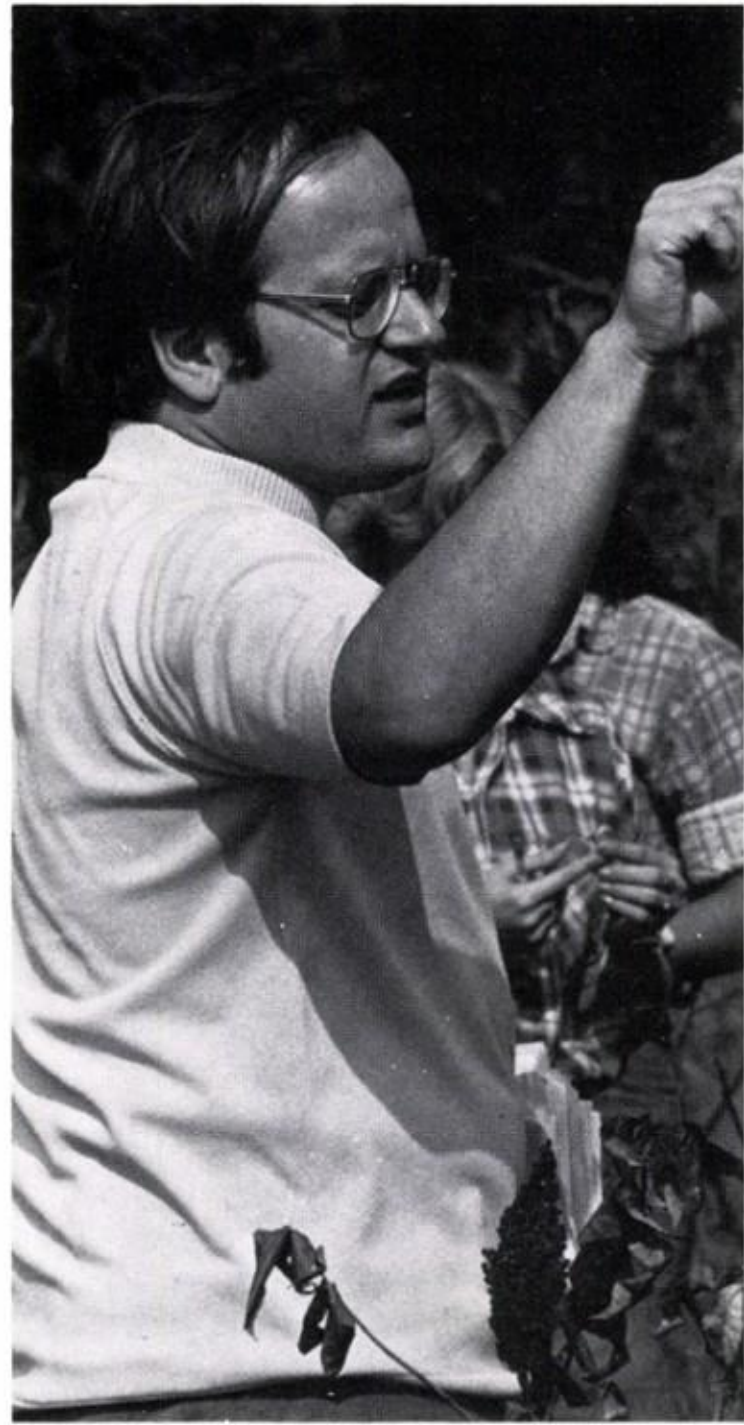

1. Sharon receives the crown from last year's queen Linda Krahn.
2. Queen Sharon Chadek and King Joe Torres.
3. The 1975 Homecoming Court: seated from left to right: Dave Hoeffert and Betsy Weaver, Jeff Miller and Caryl Wilsman, Queen Sharon Chadek and King Joe Torres, Scott Krahn and Elisa Trimberger, Jim Harmon and Mary Banks.
4. Guess we'll sit this one out.
5. John Vermey and Terri Lemke.
6. The faces of Linda Saenz and her date reflect the general mood of homecoming.
7. Couples enjoyed talking with friends.
8. Music by Silverstreet set the pace for the evening.

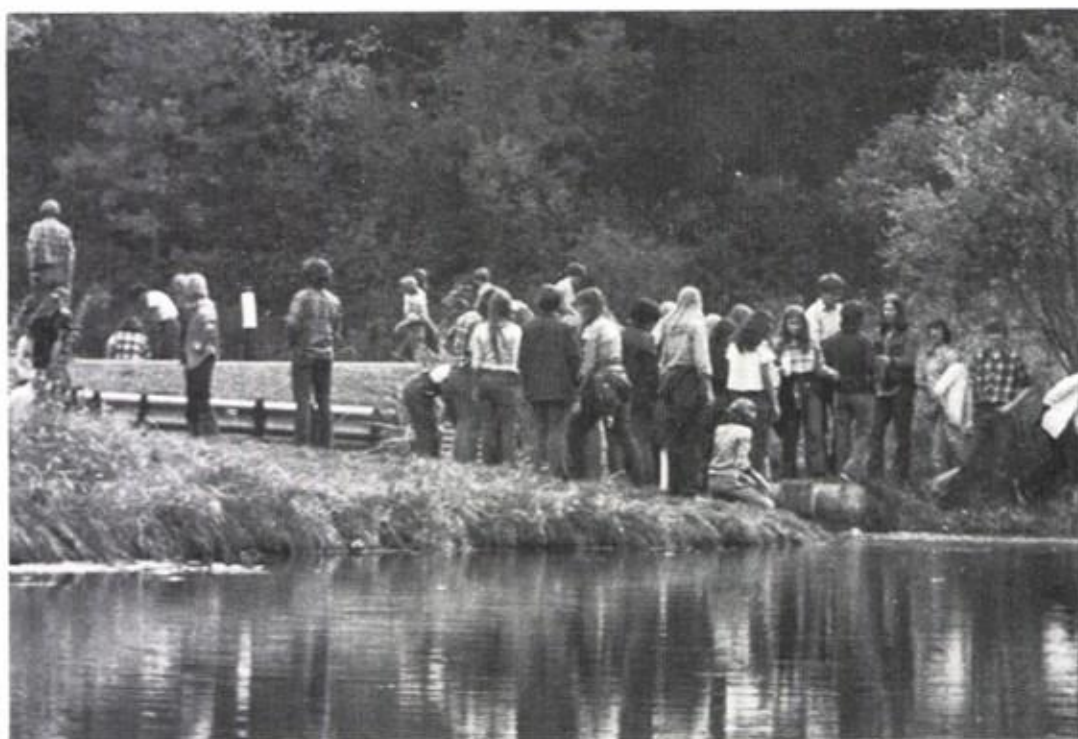

Oh y!

Biology Field Trip

Early in October, the biology classes took their annual field trip to the Kettle Moraine. Students were able to go on a nature trail, see the aging of Ottawa Lake, visit the pine plantation, and drink from a spring. Cindy Wald also got a chance to fish Mr. Forgy's thermos cup from the bottom of the pond. Even Mr. Pirk had had enough of nature by the end of the day.

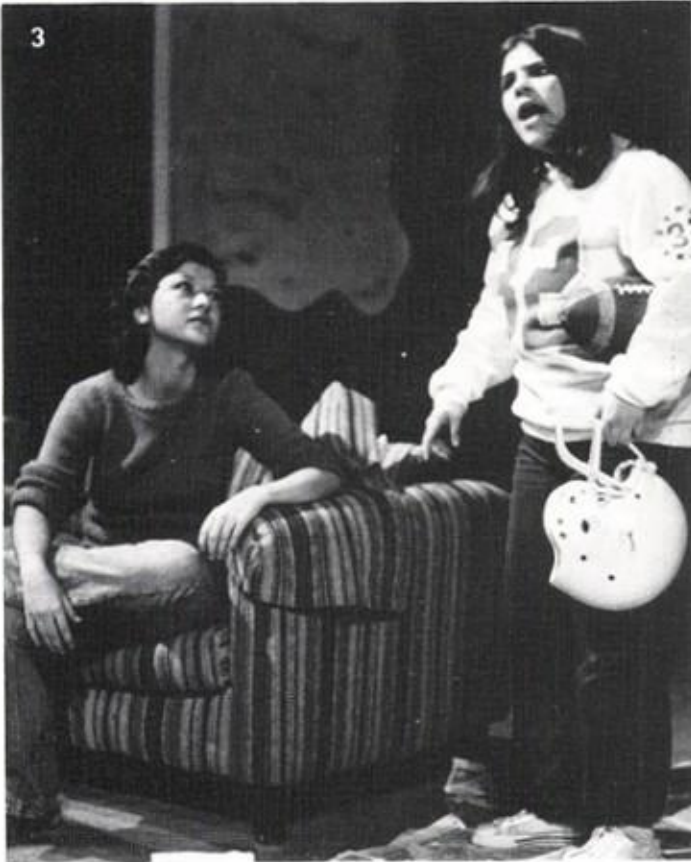

The Effects Of Gamma Rays On Man-In-The- Moon Marigolds

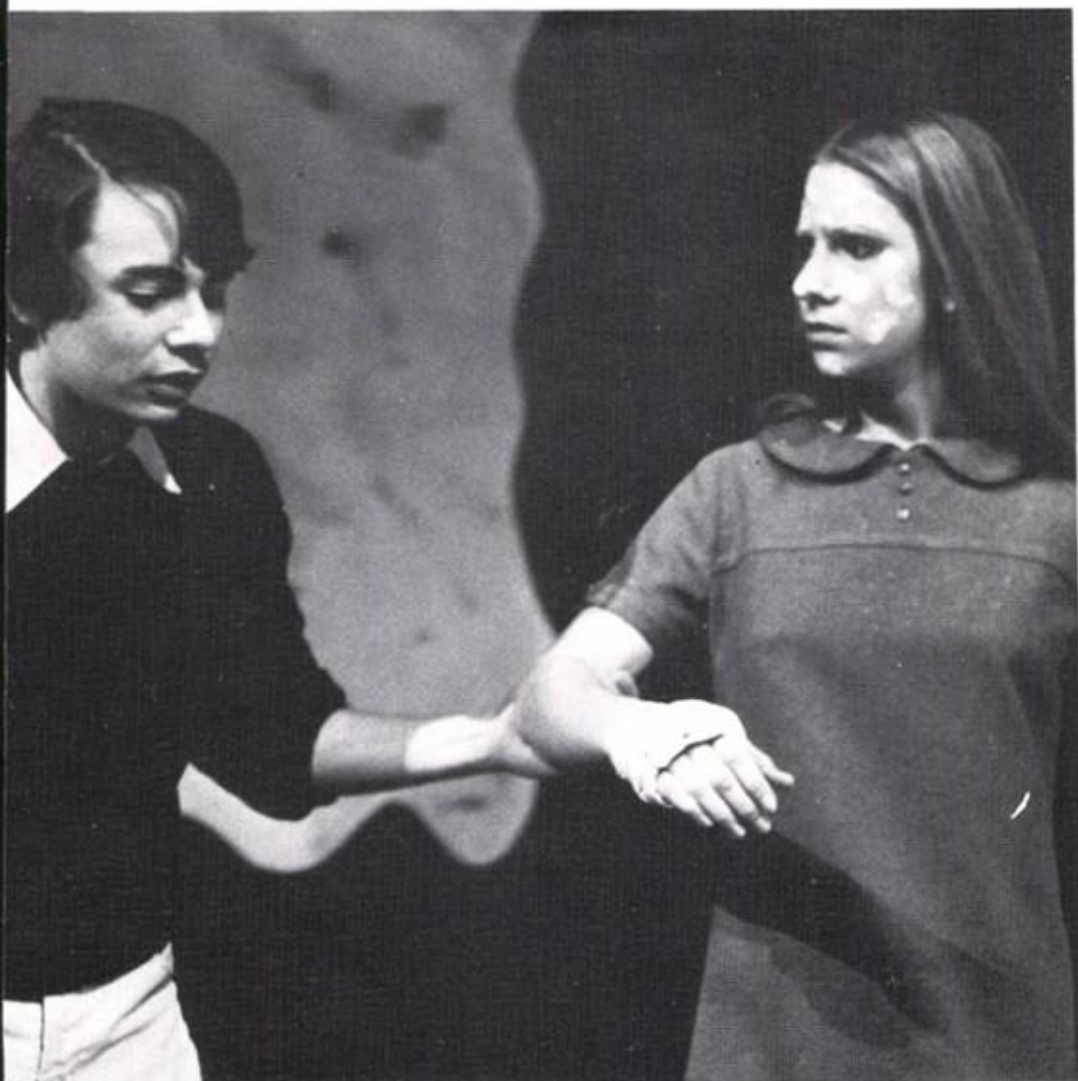

This year's first dramatic production was a sensitive portrayal of some of the problems faced by a mother and her two daughters as they confront life without a husband and father. One of the daughters, Tillie, is very interested in a science experiment dealing with marigolds; but her mother, Beatrice, places little importance on such things. The situation is further complicated by a frivolous daughter, Ruth, and an aging woman, Nanny, who is supposedly under their care. The part of Tillie was played by Kathy Dudley, Beatrice was played by Stephanie Clickner, Ruth was played by Sue Factor, and Nanny was played by Leslie Outland. The play was directed by Mrs. Orth.

Brother Goose

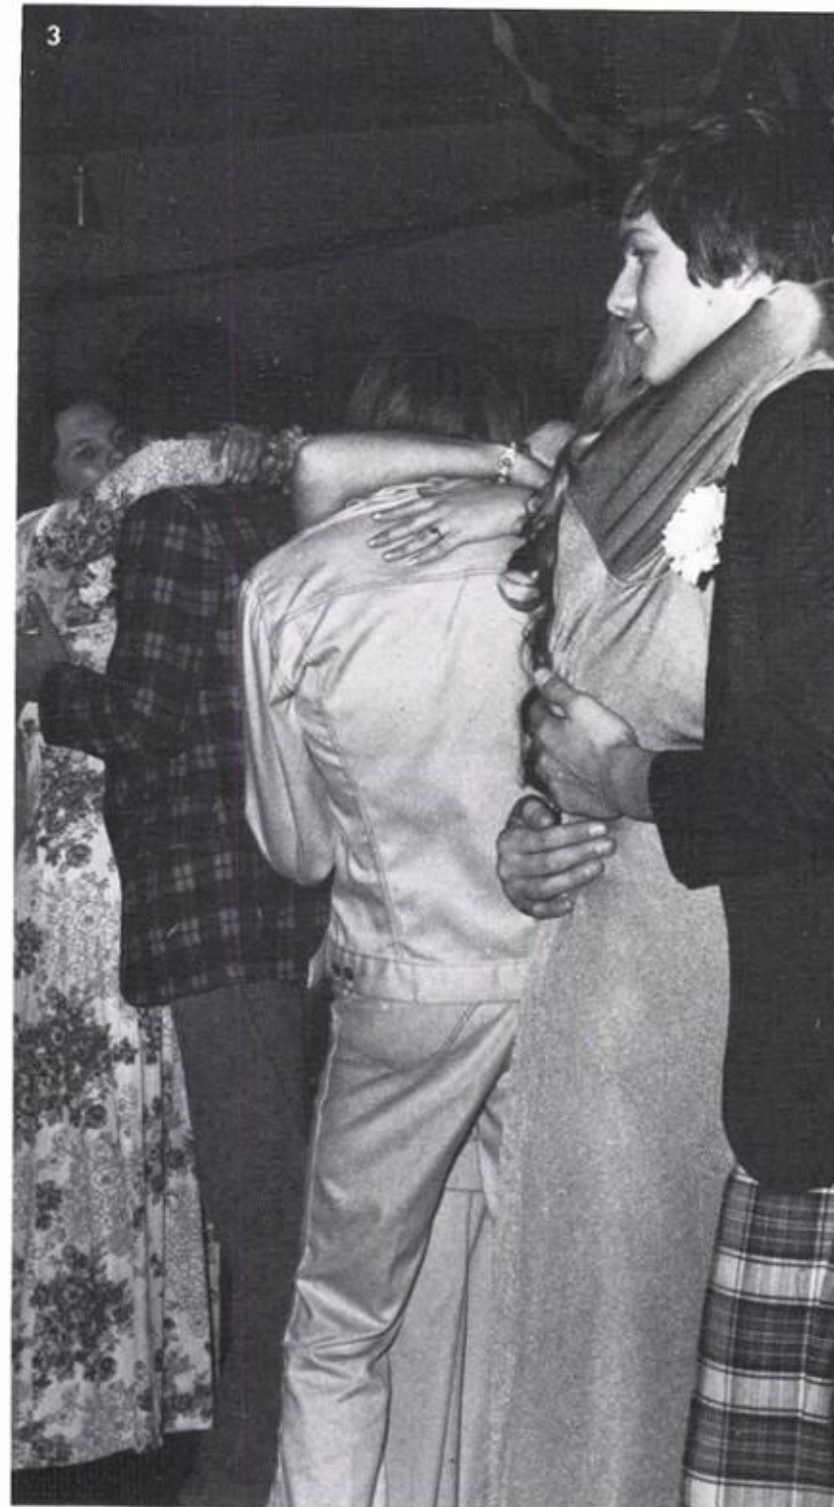

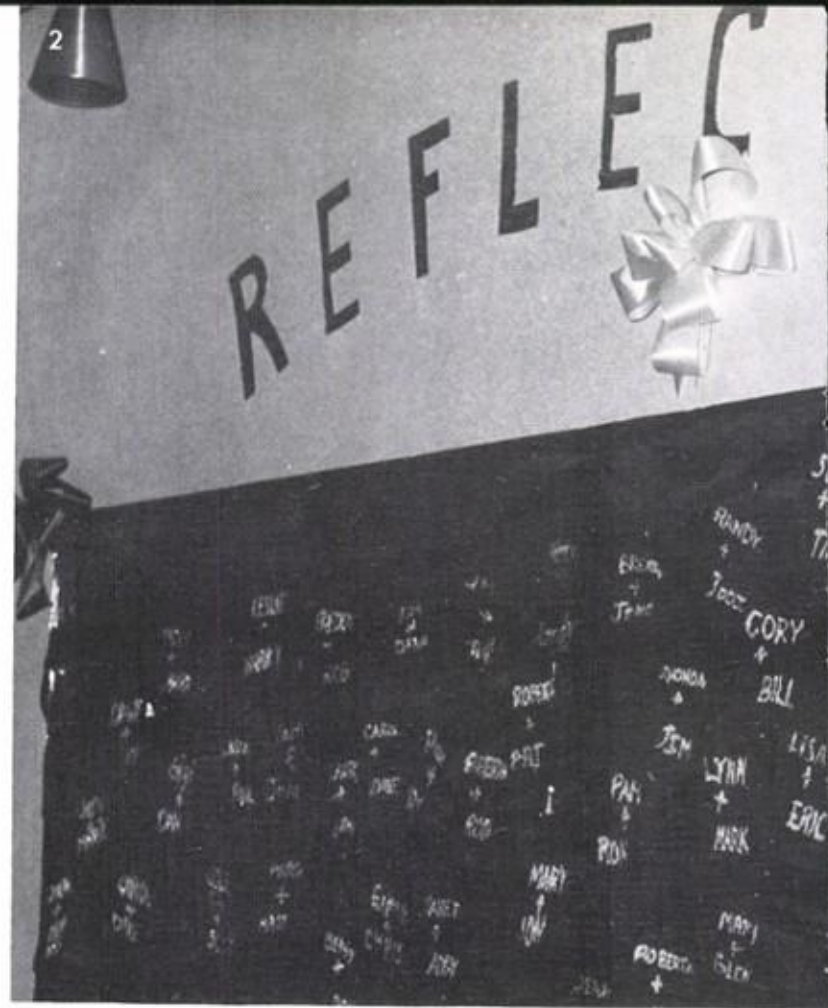

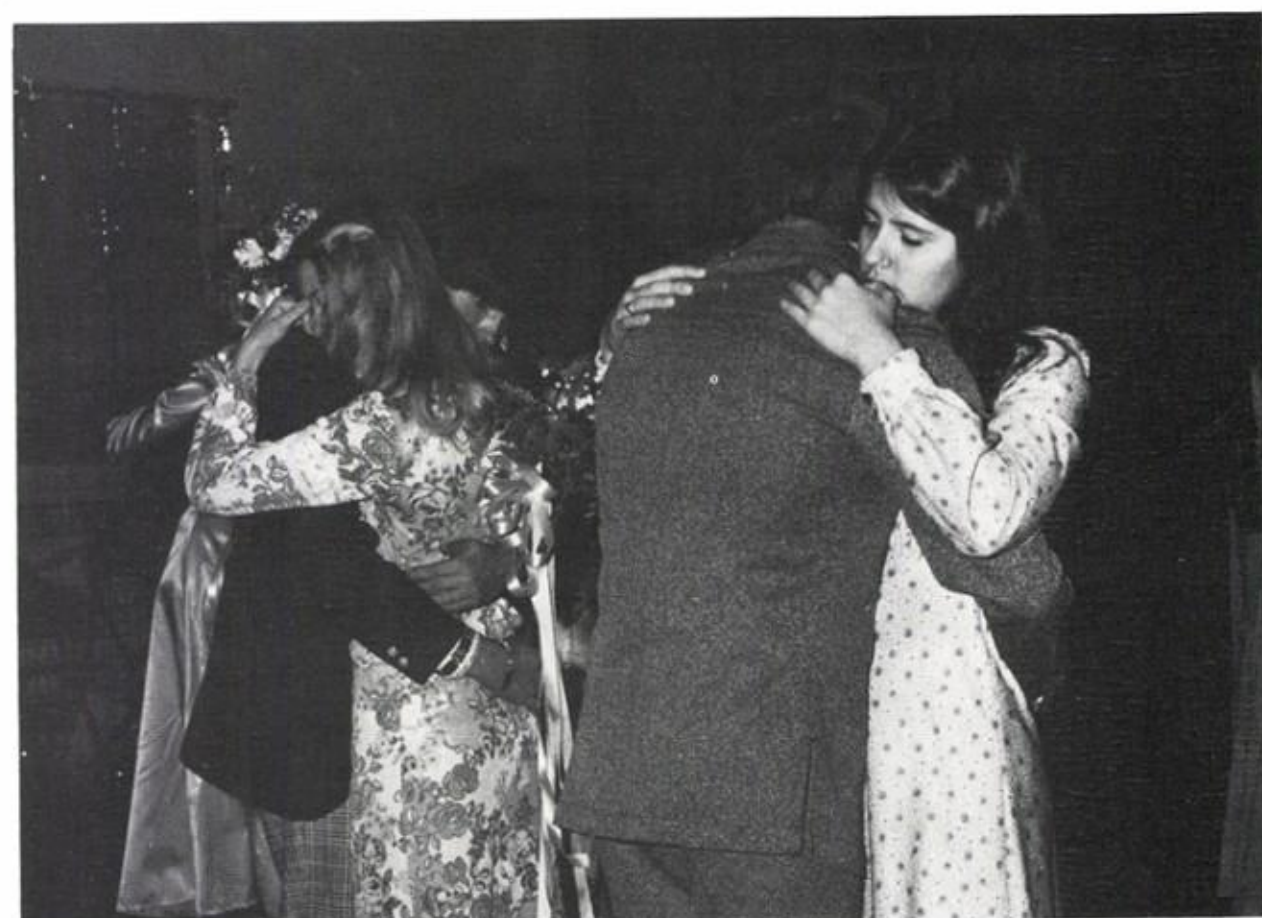

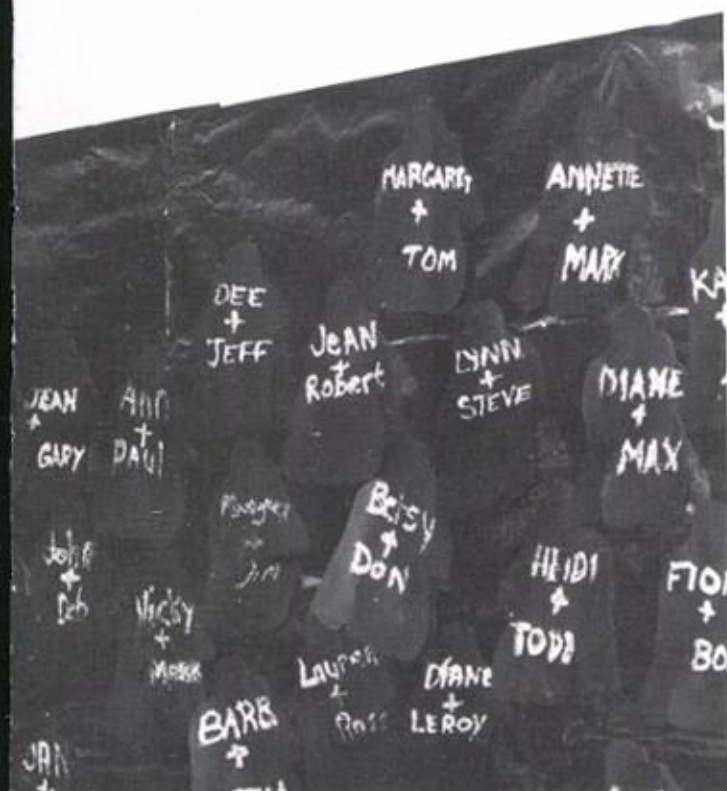

The three act comedy was presented by Theatre Company I. It was an all-student production directed by Rhoda Nathan. The story was about the Adams family whose parents were dead and whose house is run by the older brother, Jeff Adams.

1. Hyacinth (Michele Kaprelian) pouting because Peggy (Patti Meyer) is leaving.
2. Jeff Adams (Earl VanderWielen) does building plans for Mrs. Trimmer (Rhoda Nathan).
3. Hyacinth Adams explains to her sister Carol (MaryJo Matter) how important it is to have a maid.
4. Lenore, Earl and Peggy talking.
5. Wesley meets Mrs. Mason (Gail Henrickson).
6. Wesley Adams (Doug Sprague) and Eve Mason (Cindy Ackerman) going to a costume party.
7. Jeff and Lenore Hudson (Stephanie Clickner), after Lenore's entanglement with the poison ivy that Hyacinth had set up.

Reflections

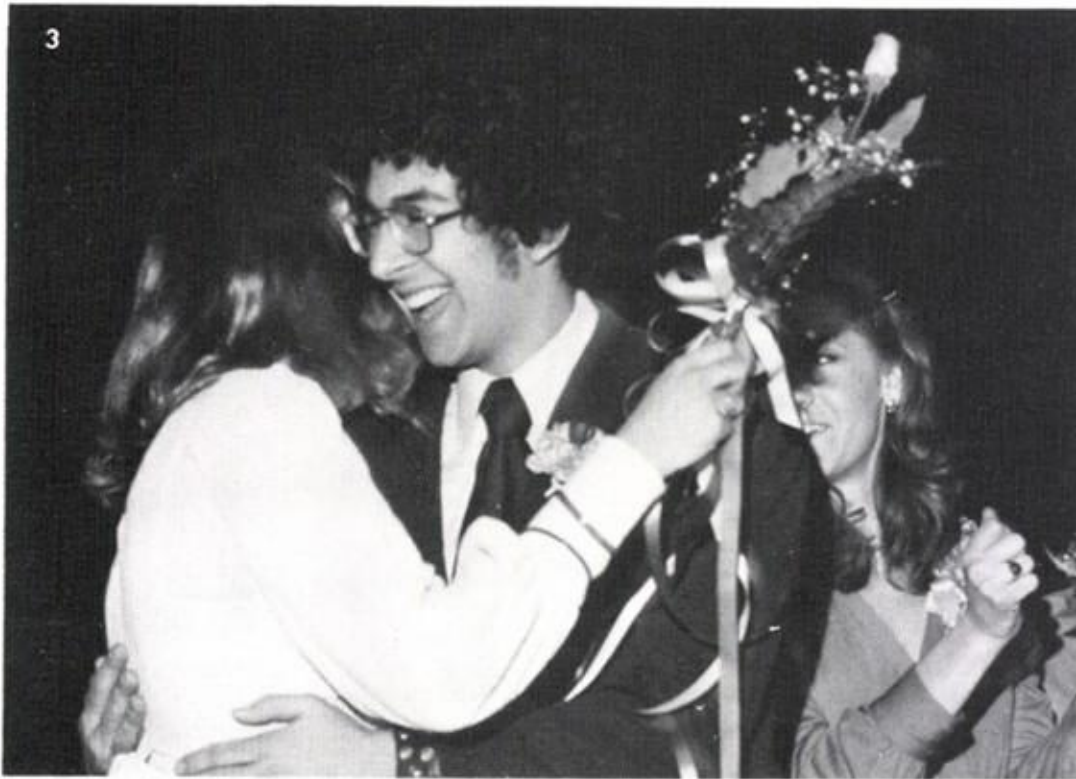

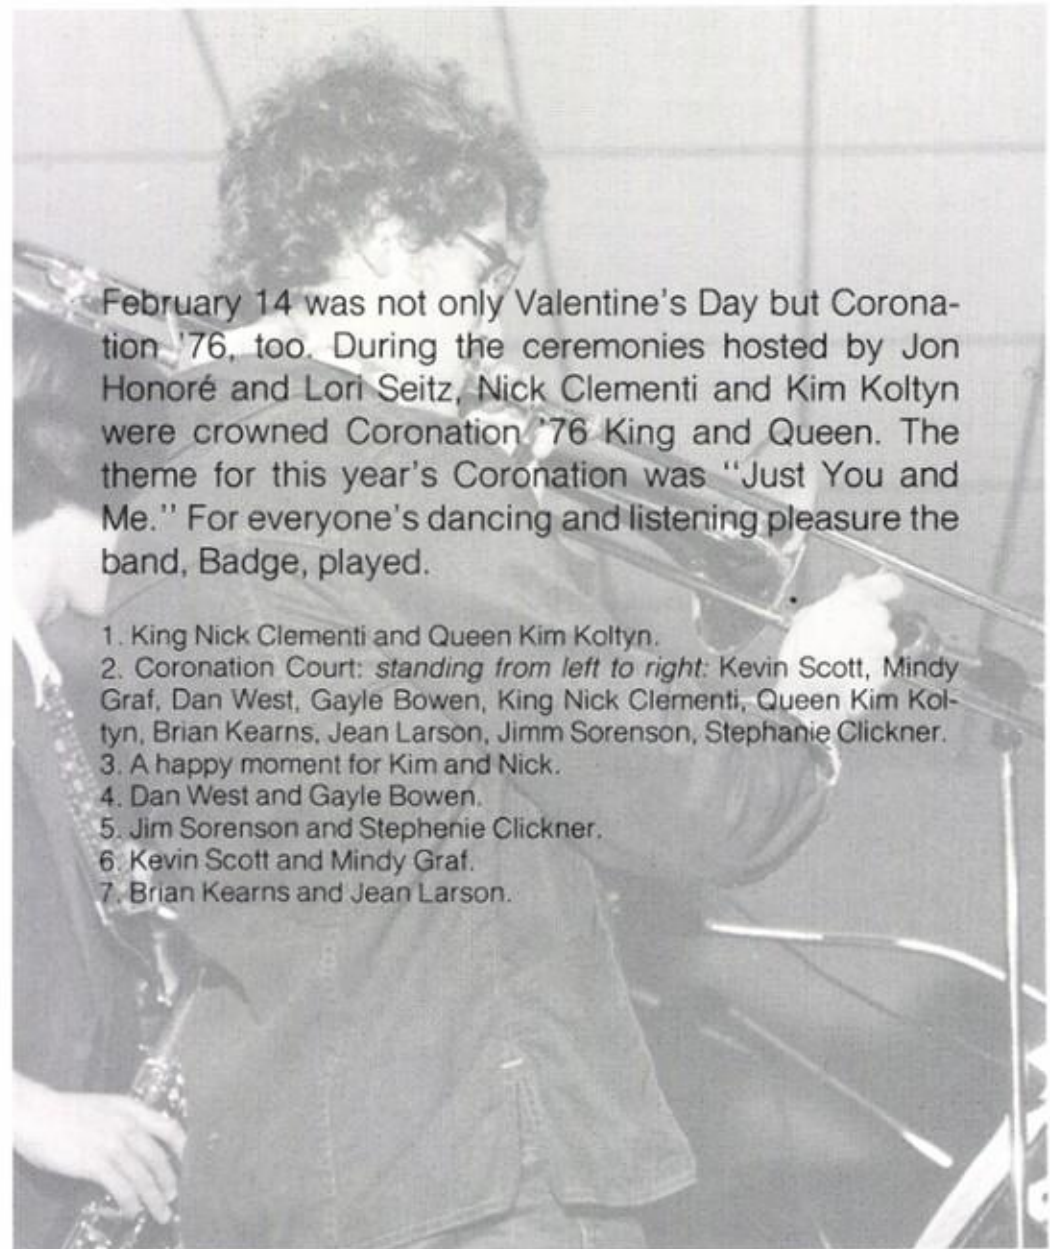

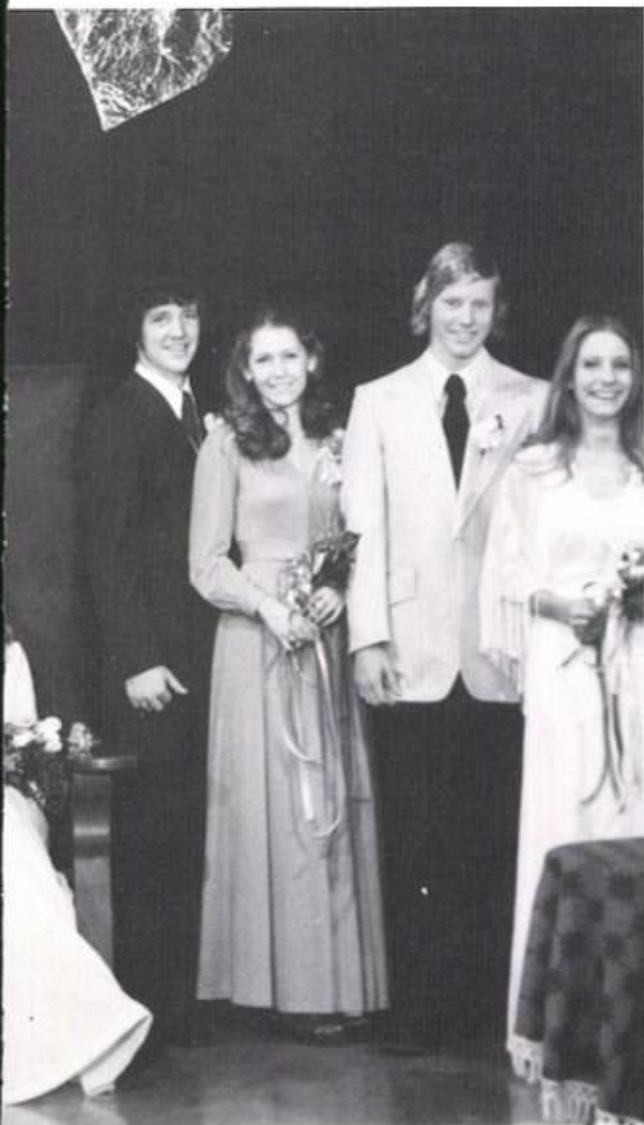

The Winter Junior Girls Formal, entitled "Reflections," was held at the Racine Eagles Club on December 27, 1975. The band was "Silus" . . .

1. Fiona Forrest reflects the atmosphere of the dance.
2. Barb + Tim, Sue + Jeff, Betsy + Don, Vicky + Mark, Lori + Bill . . .
3. Harry Kline and Leslie Outland enjoyed dancing to "Silus."
4. Terry Eisenbart and Carla Nelson feel the mood of the music.
5. Music by "Silus" set the pace for the evening.

Just You N' Me

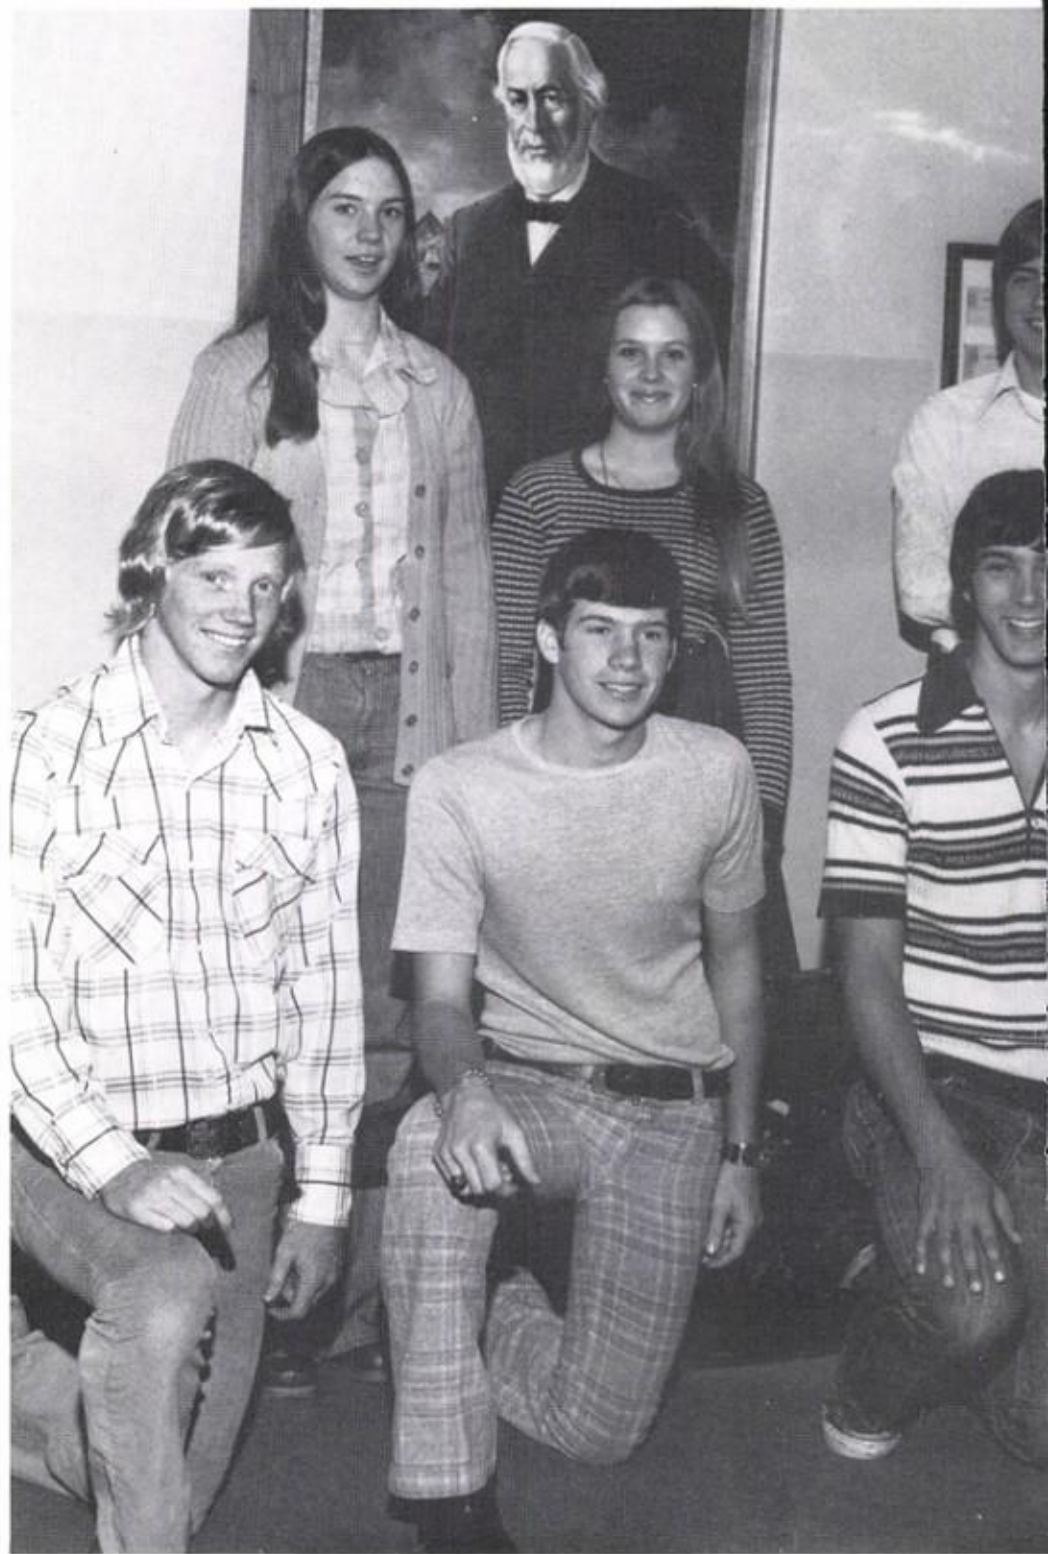

February 14 was not only Valentine's Day but Coronation '76, too. During the ceremonies hosted by Jon Honoré and Lori Seitz, Nick Clementi and Kim Koltyn were crowned Coronation '76 King and Queen. The theme for this year's Coronation was "Just You and Me." For everyone's dancing and listening pleasure the band, Badge, played.

1. King Nick Clementi and Queen Kim Koltyn.
2. Coronation Court: standing from left to right: Kevin Scott, Mindy Graf, Dan West, Gayle Bowen, King Nick Clementi, Queen Kim Koltyn, Brian Kearns, Jean Larson, Jimm Sorenson, Stephanie Clickner.
3. A happy moment for Kim and Nick.
4. Dan West and Gayle Bowen.
5. Jim Sorenson and Stephenie Clickner.
6. Kevin Scott and Mindy Graf.
7. Brian Kearns and Jean Larson.

The Case football team went 3-6 this year but more importantly they were never out-hustled, out-desired, or out-fought in any game. They played with a championship attitude and gained great satisfaction for belonging to a team who played to their full potential. The team was led by captains K. Scott and S. Krahm who both made All-Conference along with D. Iverson. D. Iverson also made the All-County team.

you didn't drop out?

A diploma looks nice in a scrapbook, but don't expect to impress a lot of people with it. One thing you can bank on ... it's not a passport to an easy life. It is proof, however, that you have perseverance which, when added to your other fine qualities and capabilities, will pay off for you throughout your lifetime.

It is our wish that graduation will not be the end, but the beginning of your quest for knowledge ... the real key to a happy fruitful life.

Intramural Basketball

All-Stars Faculty

75

72

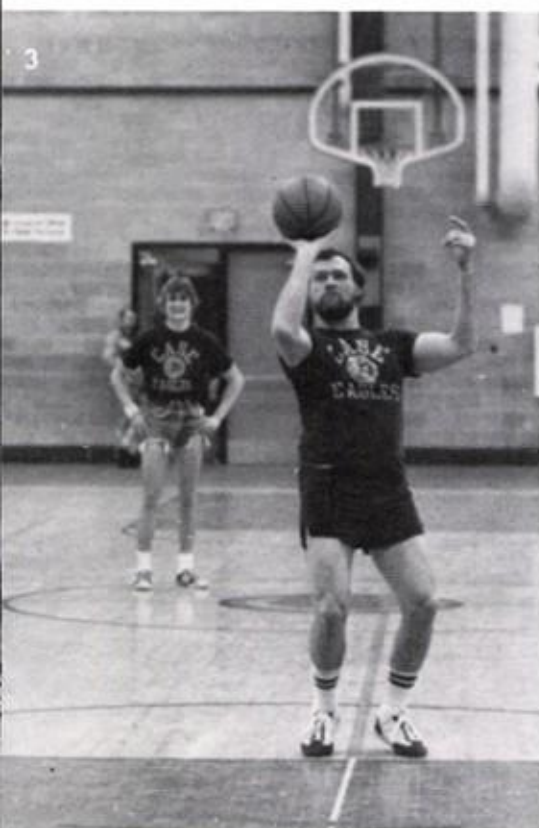

The long intramural season ended with the well publicized Student-Faculty All-Star game. The hard fought game ended with the All-Stars ahead 75-72.

1. Faculty Representatives: row 1: J. Sowinski, T. Paulson, S. Sladky, L. Libby, D. Posil, row 2: H. Venzant, J. Lesnjak, F. Skrarca, A. Miller, U. Jackson, D. Dorak.

2. Jeff Thomas runs and guns for the Old M's.
3. Mr. Posil takes a steady aim.
4. Rebound!

Mardi Gras — Tomorrow Belongs to the Children

Many felt like kids again after the opening festivities of Case's annual Mardi Gras. In accordance with this year's theme, "Tomorrow Belongs to the Children," the A.F.S.'ers escorted the public into the world of Disney's "Fantasia." The kids danced to "Gideon" following the carnival . . .

1. Bonnie and Clyde (Harry Kline and Leslie Outland).
2. Candi Standiford and Jimmy Anderson attempt to win a cake.
3. and she won! (Barb Allen).
4. Friday night fun at the convent. (Cindy Ackermann and Gale Henricksen).
5. Mardi Gras's king and queen. (Andy Paulson and Rossana Freyre.)
6. Tickets anyone?
7. Mrs. Griego and Mrs. Oehler seem to be enjoying themselves.

Precious Moments

On the evening of April 3, Silus set the pace for this year's Sophomore Girls formal, which was held at the North Shore Club in Racine.

1. "You dance divinely, my dear."
2. And we all know who this is!
3. Stephanie Clickner enjoys dancing to Silus.
4. Harry Kline and Leslie Outland share a precious moment.
5. "Who's next?" (Miss Wiese)
6. "Now where'd she go?"
7. "Aw c'mon, I didn't mean it. I think you dance good!"
8. Smile!

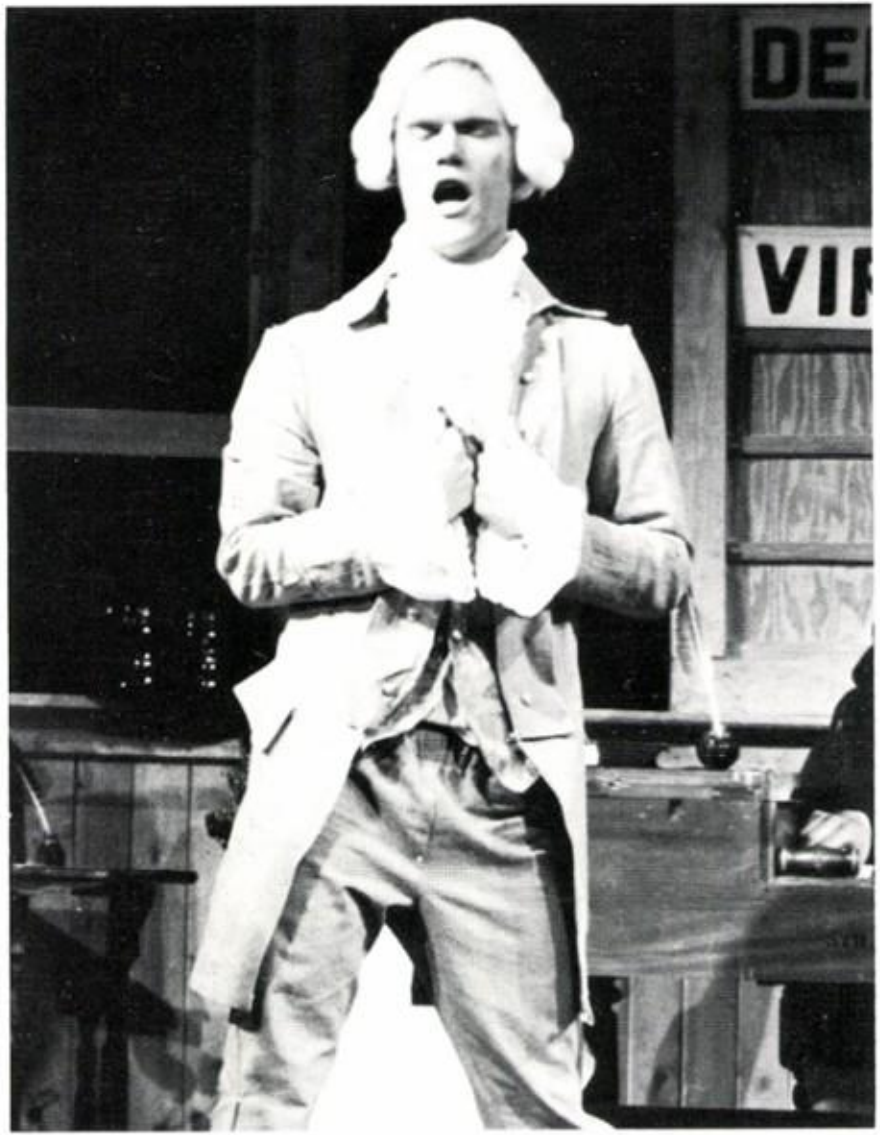

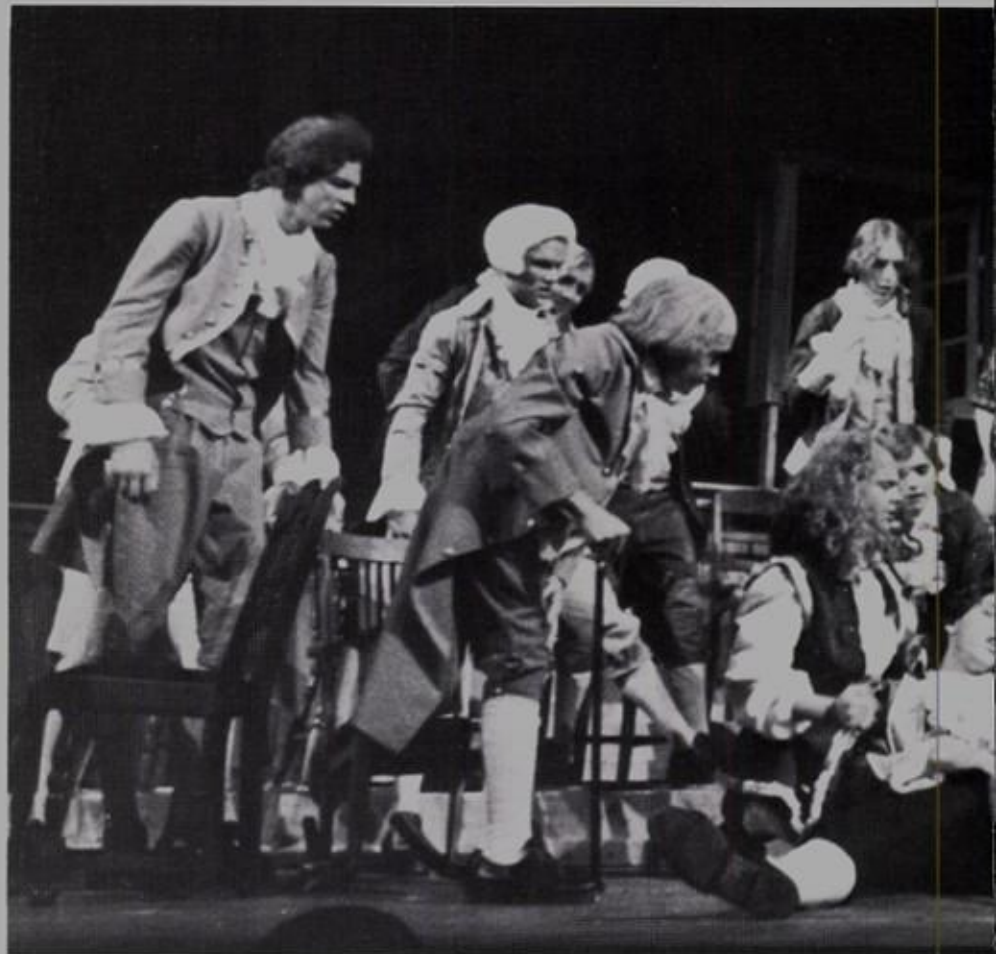

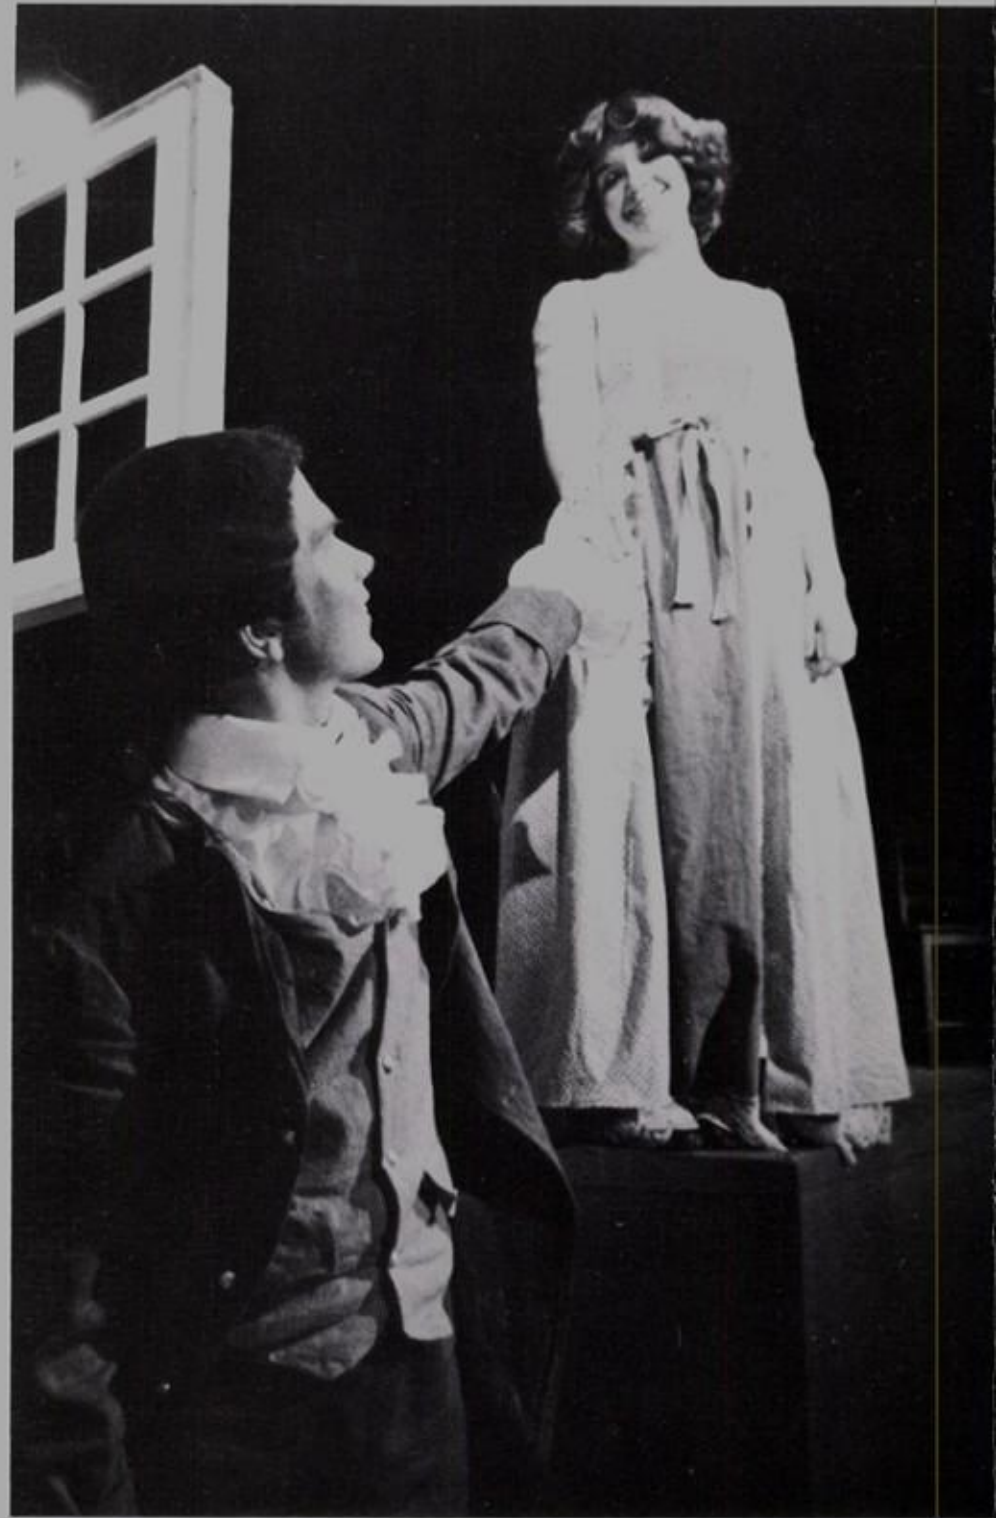

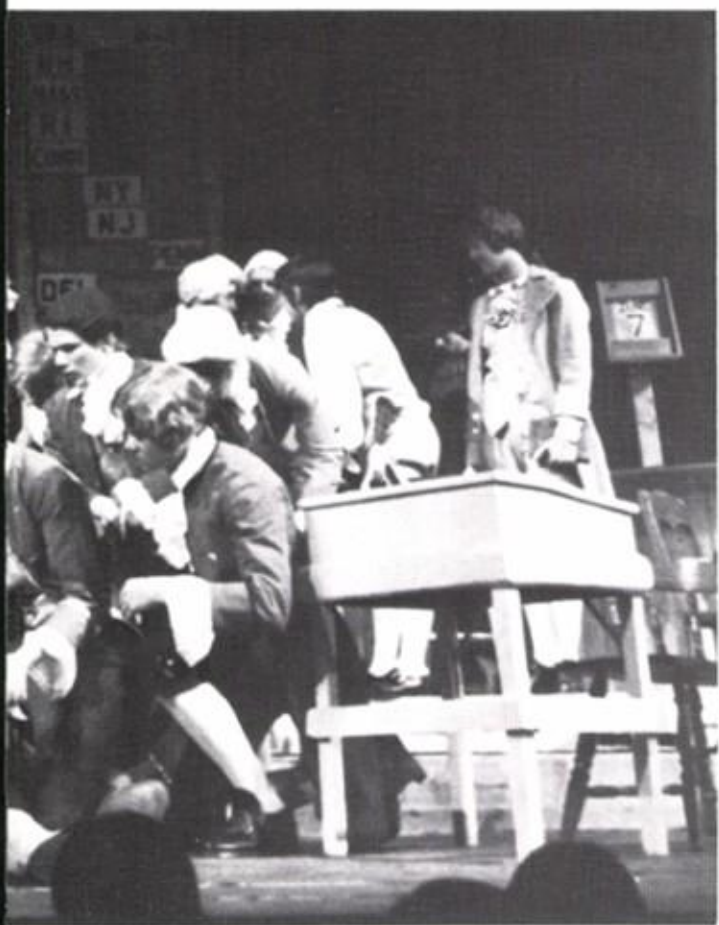

"1776"

This spring's appropriately-chosen musical was "1776," a sprightly re-enactment of the events that led up to the signing of the declaration of independence. The faculty directors were Mr. Mittag, Mr. Wurz, and Mrs. Orth. Members of the cast were Dave Sawisky, Brian Pulice, Cindy Ackerman, Lori Bartlett, Jamie Mohrbacher, Gale Henricksen, Letitia Lane, Jacquie Krupka, Jay Simpson, Dave Inloes, Earl Vander Wielen, Doug Sprague, Dave Domine, Jim Anderson, Jeff Debe, Jon Honore, John Bauman, Dave Schneider, Mike Nelson, Chris Strege, Tony Clementi, Dave Kramer, Brian Giese, Jim Wilcox, Ross Sheridan, Rick Welbon, Andy Paulson, and Rick Hansen.

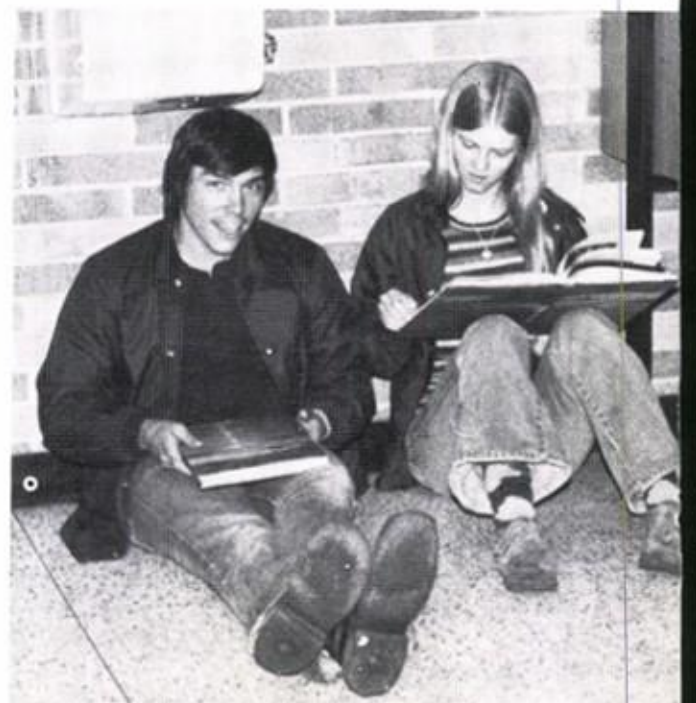

Yearbook Signing Party

The yearbook signing party not only gives students a chance to pick up their yearbooks, but it also gives them a good chance to start getting signatures from all their friends.

1. Sue Reesman and Julie DePatie enjoy a moment before the onslaught of eager students.
2. There's always time for goofing around.
3. Things seem a bit disorganized at times.
4. Sue Lojeski and Tammy Mattner handled the admission fee.
5. Bookends.
6. Be sure you write something special.

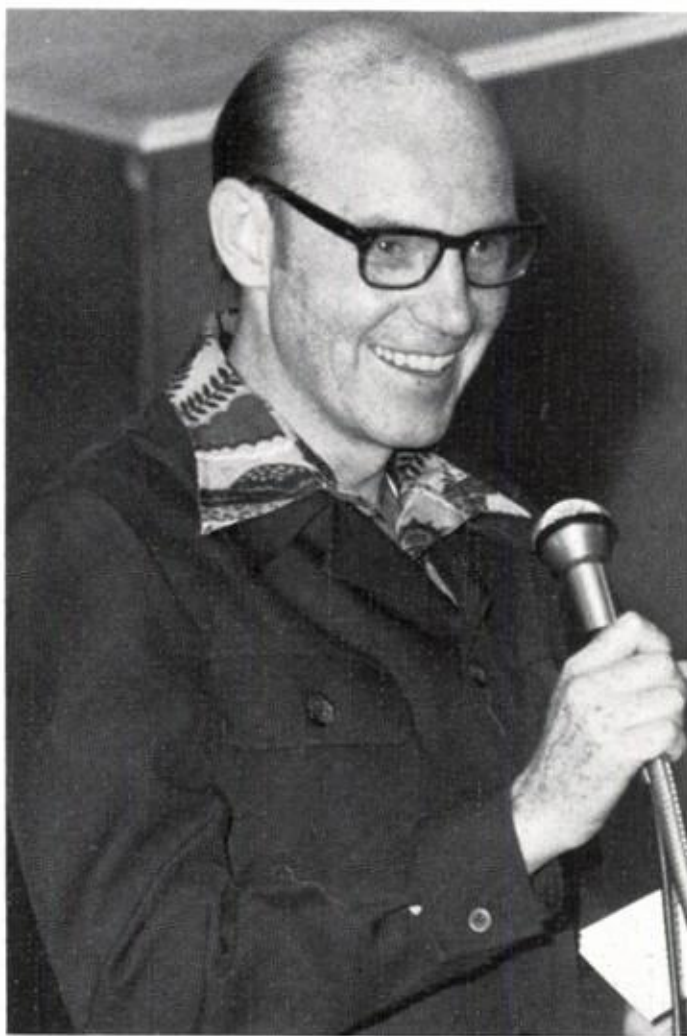

Publications Banquet

The Publications Banquet is an annual affair at which outstanding publications staffers are recognized for their achievement and are inducted into the National Honorary Journalism Society, Quill and Scroll.

1. Mrs. Libby presents Brian Pulice with his membership card for Quill & Scroll.
2. Sue Reesman was presented with a trophy for being the "Most Valuable Person" on either the yearbook or newspaper staff.
3. Selma Puryear seems overcome with emotion as she is presented with an award from Mark Hardy.
4. Many parents as well as staff members enjoyed the occasion.
5. John McKloskey and Jeff Brodek present an award with their usual regard for propriety and decorum.

Senior Banquet

Senior Banquet 1976 contained all the elements necessary to guarantee a perfect senior banquet — a final speech from President Nick Clementi; a few jokes from Mr. Coles; a farewell from Mandy Young, Case's exchange student from Australia; a parting smile from Mr. Pike; and general good times going on all around.
